NAMBOUR
CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

About our Program

Nambour Christian College has an After School Care Program to provide care for Primary aged school children. Attendance can be on a permanent, casual or occasional basis.

This program is managed and operated using the Christian values as described in our College Mission Statement.

AFTER SCHOOL CARE AIMS TO PROVIDE:

- Quality care for children from Prep to Year 7
- Creative and stimulating activities
- Safe, secure and caring environment
- A program that complements Christian values taught at school and at home

BENEFITS TO PARENTS:

- Gives parents "peace of mind" with the knowledge that their children are in a safe, secure and caring environment
- Provides them the opportunity to engage in work, study or handle emergencies
- Enables parents to meet with other parents and staff members

BENEFITS TO CHILDREN:

- Provides children with consistent and continuous nurturing in a safe and secure environment
- Allows them to experience new, exciting and fun activities
- Develops and continues friendships with other children
- Offers the opportunity to do homework or have quiet time

Hours of Operation

After School: 2.45pm - 6.00pm

For children who have not been collected after 6.00pm, a $10.00 fee for the first 5 minutes and $1.00 fee for every minute thereafter will apply.

Fees

The majority of families are eligible to receive a Child Care Benefit from the Family Assistance Office. To enquire about assistance, ring FAO on 13 61 50.

All fees are required to be paid on a fortnightly basis. Failure to pay on this basis may result in the child being excluded from the program.

Costs:

- 1st child - $15.00 per session for Term bookings
- Sibling - $13.00 per session
- Casual - $18.00 per session

Food and Beverages

A healthy afternoon tea is provided, however, children may bring extra food or special dietary food if required.

Bookings

Children attending Nambour Christian College After School Care must be enrolled by a parent or legal guardian. For all bookings, telephone 0418 983 892.

Cancellations

For cancellations, parents must telephone or text the above number before 12 midday of the day in question. This is very important as it avoids unnecessary time spent locating your child.

Parents will be billed for any session that has not been cancelled properly.

Signing your Child out

Parents, or an authorised adult, must sign their child/ren out. A form will be given to parents to nominate persons authorised to sign their child/ren out. This is a safety procedure and also a requirement from the Family Assistance Office if you are claiming Child Care Benefits.

Medication

If your child requires regular medication, please contact the Group Leader to arrange a Health Management Plan.
